

22 Long Acre, Covent Garden WC2E 9LY

Description:

A stylish modern building with high-end decor and fully furnished serviced offices tailored to meet the needs of businesses today. This property is situated in Covent Garden which is one of the most sought after business zones in London. It is also one of the most affluent business destinations in the city. 22 Long Acre provides serviced offices that have been neatly designed throughout. This centre has an onsite support team to assist users with any relevant assistance they may require. There is reliable internet connectivity available alongside printing and telephone services. Since they provide a 24/7 access, this would suit clients that need to work during odd hours. These serviced offices also offer large lounge areas and a roof terrace with amazing views of London. If you enjoy sharing the same business environment as other top business executives in the city and require easy access into the city, this is the ideal business centre for you.
