

The Chandlery, 50 Westminster Bridge Road, Waterloo SE1 7QY

Description:

The Chandlery was converted from a school to Serviced Office Space facilities in 1990. The building is within a gated complex. The Chandlery building is noted in the History books as housing tenants that were ship's chandlers and supplied services to the water-men of London. In later years The Chandlery became a school. This building is situated in the splendid gated complex on the historic site of Melina Place. This Victorian building has a beautiful garden courtyard.
