

One Canada Square, 1 37th Floor, 1 Canada Square, Canary Wharf, Canary Wharf E14 5AA

Description:

This business centre is located in the most popular building in Canary Wharf and features serviced offices with panoramic views. This is an iconic building that was completed in 1991. It has since then gone on to become the most popular building in London's financial district of Canary Wharf. It sits next to major global financial institutions and plays a major role in defining London's skyline at night. Whether you choose to use the tube or DLR, this building is highly accessible via Canary Wharf, West Ferry and West India Quay Stations. It offers a very modern complex and world class infrastructure. You will be surrounded by investment managers, brokers and service providers when you work from this building. This is a very professional business environment with excellent links to other parts of London. London City Airport is also very nearby as it is only a few stops away on the DLR. Clients driving to this location can also use their underground car park.
